

The Children and Young People First Project

Seminar Wednesday 28th January
2009

The Children and Young People First Project

- Project funded by the Children's Workforce Development Council
- Judith Naylor, based at KVA for 2 days a week
- Partnership project with RBK

The Children and Young People First Project

- Aim of project is to help voluntary organisations to access training opportunities for the children's workforce
- To increase the representation and involvement of voluntary sector groups on the Children's Trust

The Children and Young People First Project

- Survey of the Children's Workforce has just been completed. Analysis of the results will be produced soon.
- Information Pack has been produced and sent out to groups in December 08.

The Children and Young People First Project

- The seminar today is the first in a series of training events.
- The next seminar is on Tuesday 10th March from 9.30-12.30 and will focus on training development plans and continuous professional development.

The Children and Young People First Project

- Plans for future work:
 - Induction standards
 - Peer and mentor training
 - Future seminars, ideas welcome!